Re: Request for Early Termination from Probation

On August 4, 2004, Ida Marie Afilleje was sentenced by the Honorable John C. Coughenour, Designated Judge, District of Guam, for the offense of Theft of Government Money, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 641. She was sentenced to 36 months probation.

In addition to the standard and mandatory conditions of supervised release, Ms. Afilleje was ordered to participate in a program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for substance abuse which may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol; make restitution in the amount of $410.23 to the Naval Exchange Guam; not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without approval of the probation officer unless she is in compliance with the restitution payment schedule; provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and pay a special assessment fee of $100.

Ms. Afilleje satisfied the special assessment fee on September 3, 2004, and on December 2, 2004, she paid the restitution obligation in full. She also completed the one year substance abuse testing and treatment program on May 24, 2005, and submitted to DNA collection on April 12, 2005 as instructed.
